|---|--------------------------|--|----------------|
| 1 | <input type="checkbox"/> | Garden admission to include talk from owner about history of house and restoration project, tea/coffee, biscuits | £5 per head    |
| 2 | <input type="checkbox"/> | Garden & tour of house (main reception rooms) to include talk & refreshment                                      | £8 per head    |
| 3 | <input type="checkbox"/> | Light lunch (available to book as a group)   | £7.50 per head |
| 4 | <input type="checkbox"/> | Traditional Devonshire teas (available to book as a group)   | £4.50 per head |

It is suggested that you allow 2 hours for a visit of the garden & house, with additional time for lunch/tea

It may be necessary to split large groups (over 15 people) when touring the house

There is ample parking for all vehicles

Dogs are very welcome, but must be kept on a short lead as we have free ranging peacocks

Some areas of the gardens are unsuitable for wheelchairs, or those with walking difficulties.
Please get in touch if you need further information.
